AMERICAN RED CROSS

12 February 1945

Dear Dr. Tate:

Unfortunately I haven't had the privilege to have made your acquaintance, but I think it won't take us too long to establish a basis of friendship. I have listen to so many of the fellows sing praises of you that I hardly believe a formal introduction necessary.

I suppose you think I'm delinquent as a corresponding secretary. I admit that there has been negligence on my part, but circumstances ~~to~~ also had a role.

The day I received the Newsletter, I immediately called in the boys. We were overjoyed to read about our buddies.

There is one suggestion I'd like to make. As you know everyone has not been contacted, it is the prime wish that every fellow should have a regular correspondence with you. Either go to the ~~war~~ War Dept. and procure our Army Address, or make out a form and send it to the home addresses so that the parents or relatives may forward it directly to the member.

We have formed a group here of five fellows. I have been chosen to act as presiding officer and Charles Greer as the secretary. There is a letter on the way to you with our financial contributions.

Personally I want to thank you for everything.

I hope you will write.

Your friend always,
Pot. Lason

P.S. Inclosed you will find an article which you may use in the newsletter if its up to standard.
